Arriving at the Atlantic Police Academy

Professionalism and proper dress and deportment is instilled in cadets while in training. Upon arrival at the Atlantic Police Academy, cadets are to report in the following attire which will be worn daily until dress uniforms are issued:

- shineable black boots (military or police style)
- 2-3 pairs of black dress pants
- 2-3 plain white dress shirts collared for a tie
- black belt
- black tie (clip-on)
- black socks

In addition, cadets are required to bring the following items:

- sneakers (non-marking)
- materials to shine boots (black polish)
- 1 mouth guard piece
- 4 plain black t-shirts (screen printed 2-inch capital white letters of your last name on the front of each shirt)
- recommend 20 oz boxing gloves
- rain gear and fall cold weather gear

Requirements for Self-Care

Male's hair must be neatly trimmed and tapered above the dress shirt collar with sideburns no lower than a point at the middle of the ear. Moustaches are to be neat and well-trimmed. Other than moustaches, the face must be clean shaven. Female's hair must be up or worn neatly off the shoulders.

Pre-recruit Fitness Manual

A Pre-recruit Fitness Manual is included in this package which will better prepare cadets for the physical training and control tactics portions of training at the Atlantic Police Academy. You are asked to review this manual and start training well in advance of your arrival.

General Information

Normal Training Week - A normal week may consist of lecture, lab work, firearms, physical training and practical scenario training. Regular classes are Monday to Friday, but you will be required to participate in training activities before and after class hours, as well as on some weekends.

Accommodations - Cadets will be assigned an individual dorm room, which includes a private washroom, in Holland House barracks while training on-site at the Atlantic Police Academy. It is a co-ed dormitory which does not include maid service. Cadets will act as a team to keep the dorm clean. Personal stereo equipment is not permitted in the residence; however, computers are allowed (high speed internet/wi-fi connection available). A television is supplied. You will receive instructions on the upkeep of your room. Under no circumstances are alcoholic beverages to be brought into the barracks.

Inspections - Periodic room and uniform inspections will be held throughout training. Prior to the first inspection, cadets will be shown how to properly make up their room. It is MANDATORY that you live in residence during the course.

Meals - Meals are provided seven days a week. Meals are buffet style and provide a good nutritional diet while enrolled in training. If you have any food allergies or specific meal requirements, please advise your Course Learning Manager prior to arrival. This will allow ample time, so arrangements can be made to accommodate your needs.

Cadet Code of Conduct - Cadets are required to maintain their conduct with the professional standards expected of peace officers. Cadet conduct procedures are outlined in the Core Programs Cadet Code of Conduct/Policy and Procedures manual which will be enforced. Violation of the Cadet Code of Conduct/Policy and Procedures will result in dismissal from the program.

Duty Constable - You will also be scheduled from time to time as a Duty Shift Cadet at the Atlantic Police Academy. Some shifts will be on weekends. These duties are considered part of the training process to get you acquainted with shift work, practical application of station duties and to ensure the safety and good conduct of your fellow cadets in the Atlantic Police Academy residence.

Course Standard - Successful completion of all aspects of training requires a passing grade of 75% on all academic subjects.

Provincial Medical Card - Out of province cadets are reminded to bring proof of medical coverage (Medicare Card) from their home province.
